NAVAL STATION ROTA, SPAIN

AMC GRAM

WELCOME TO NAVAL STATION ROTA, SPAIN

¡Hola! Bienvenido a Rota, España. The Air Terminal is a U.S. Navy operated AMC Terminal. Whether you are stationed in the area or just passing through, Air Terminal personnel are here to assist you with your AMC travel needs. Please understand that our passenger Agents have no control over the amount of "Space Available" seats or aircraft departure schedules. Both seats and times are subject to last minute changes. We will make every effort to ensure travel opportunities are posted and provide you with a clean, comfortable Terminal while you are waiting for your flight.

Where are we? Naval Station Rota is located on the Atlantic coast of southern Spain, approximately 70 miles from the Strait of Gibraltar. Rota is known as the "Gateway to the Mediterranean." Rota is located across the bay from the romantic city of Cadiz; the oldest city and shipping port in Spain. Nestled in the Andalucian region, the area is famous for its sherry, flamenco and sevillana dancing, and the breeding of prize horses and fighting bulls. Spain offers a wide variety of historical sights and cultural experiences. We hope you are able to take advantage of our location and enjoy exciting adventures and rewarding travels. Distance to nearby travel destinations (miles) include: El Puerto de Santa Maria 7 (nearest train station), Jerez de la Frontera 15 (nearest commercial airport), Chipiona 10, Cadiz 30, Algeciras 80, Gibraltar 90, Sevilla 80, Ronda 100, Malaga 150, Madrid 400, Barcelona 825. Enjoy!

Places to stay. On-base billeting is very limited. Personnel on orders should have reservations prior to arrival. The Combined Bachelor House (CBH) is located in building 39.
